

CORPORATE DAY RETREAT

With Sonia Samtani

DAY RETREAT

Many businesses recognise the value of investing their resources to create a high value brand for their products & services. Now companies are realizing that in order to truly be successful they need to take it one step further, they need to invest in the overall well-being of their most important assets - their employees!

In light of this we provide tailor-made wellness retreat programs that are off-site and produce lasting change. Our program includes training on leadership, resilience, personal presence, communication, mindfulness, stress management, and physical wellness.

WORKSHOP BENEFITS:

- Greater confidence and self-esteem
- Enhanced social skills & relationships amongst the team
- Greater self-awareness and empathy for others
- Enhanced communication skills
- Ability to make a lasting impression
- Improvement in overall presence
- Enhanced sense of personal satisfaction & overcoming fears
- Greater productivity

TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

We deliver positive, high-impact and highly interactive trainings, cultivating a growth mind-set for positive changes. We have divided our services into four sections that we specialize in:

PSYCHOLOGY

Your mindset & Beliefs

COMMUNICATION

Your Personal & Professional Relationships

STRATEGY

Your Plan for Success

TEAMWORK

Your connection with your team

PROGRAM OUTLINE

PSYCHOLOGY

- Discover the beliefs that are preventing you from performing at your peak
- Overcome inner obstacles that sabotage your efforts to be your best
- Unlearn negative language patterns that create limiting beliefs
- Learn techniques to quickly and effectively shift disempowering thoughts at work
- Tap into your natural potential for learning, performance and growth

TEAMWORK

- Engage in fun and simple activities to discover and enhance your connection with your colleagues
- Activities will involve physical engagement that opens up both right and left brain hemispheres such as art, pottery or role-playing

COMMUNICATION

- Identify your own communication style
- Enhance your understanding of other people's language & behaviour
- Distinguish between healthy & dysfunctional relationships and identify the roles you are playing with significant people in your life
